SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Join the Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society for our fourth annual Best in Show fundraising benefit. Featuring Amy Tan, bestselling author of The Joy Luck Club and others, and hosted by Dr. Michael Krasny of the award-winning KQED Forum, this evening will be dedicated to the impact that animals have in our lives. Best in Show also features the live finals of our amateur storytelling contest.

Berkeley Humane

All support enables Berkeley Humane to provide life-saving programs for cats and dogs in throughout the East Bay region. The Berkeley-East Bay Humane Society is a community-based nonprofit organization that relies on individual contributions, program fees, grants, and fundraising events. Your event sponsorship enables Berkeley Humane to provide life-saving services, nutritious food, and much-needed comfort to cats and dogs rescued in the East Bay.

Marketing

Not only will your sponsorship of the Best in Show event save lives, it will also align your brand with a community leader in animal welfare and increase visibility throughout Berkeley Humane's robust network. Berkeley Humane's reach includes over 18,000 regular supporters, and our website and social media reach over 50,000 visitors each month. With a highly engaged social media audience and a banner headline, your sponsorship provides significant visibility options.

All proceeds directly support Berkeley Humane's mission to provide lifesaving programs for cats and dogs throughout the East Bay.
